

South Hams Community Action Membership - Local Supporters 2024-25

Community groups and organisations, including social enterprises, based in South Hams are invited to apply for membership of South Hams Community Action as 'local supporters'

Your membership provides essential support for sustaining South Hams Community Action's services in the community. It enables us to provide information, support and advice as well as deliver projects including low-cost training workshops, networking events and supporting volunteering across the South Hams.

For £60 p.a. (which equates to just £5 a month) your annual membership entitles you to:

- Fortnightly funding updates, including information on the latest funding opportunities.
- Reduced cost or free training sessions—new training coming soon includes quarterly volunteer induction training sessions.
- Advance notice and access to events including forthcoming 'meet the funder' online sessions.
- Policy templates.
- Free one-to-one support including governance and organisational development, etc.
- Signposting and advice for when you need to undertake DBS checks.
- Opportunity to undertake free Quality Mark certification.
- Free hire of our digital projector and screen, and display boards (subject to availability).

If you have any specific training, development or other needs, please contact us and let us know how we can help you.
